

Celebration Time

Settlers Albany recently saw a fantastic turnout of some 300 residents and friends to celebrate the 7th anniversary of the village and Precious McKenzie's 80th Birthday. The party kicked off early in the evening with celebratory drinks and a cake cutting by Shirley Brown who along with her husband Jack were Settlers first residents.

Then it was time to toast the evergreen Precious McKenzie with a specially decorated cake carrying his portrait in the icing.

Settlers Manager Keith Thorpe and Sales Manager Rosalie Pearson along with Premier Lifestyle Villages CEO Terry Middlemost thanked Precious for his significant contribution to the village and also acknowledged his place in our wider community as a very special New Zealander.

Rosalie has had a long association with Precious as the first village manager and a member of his power lifting team competing in Las Vegas last year. She described him as Settlers Ambassador; humble, gracious with a genuine interest in the well being of all citizens and a great zest for life. The Resident's committee had a special surprise in store for him too with the unveiling of the 'Precious McKenzie Gymnasium', named in his honour.

He had no idea his name had been etched on the glass panel door of the gym even though he's usually there every morning!
